The Semantional War-Bubble Busined The Cablmer Semion—Activity in the Barg. ["postal telegram to the Dispatch.]
Wassingron, November 19.—The sens

tional Spanish-Cuban scare is at rest, and to day brought no opportunity for a renewal of the reports that have been in circulation to the effect that warlike notes were passing between this and the Spanish Government, A recent and very private telegraphic correspondence between the President and General Sherman has been magnified into a story of impending war, when the fact is that such correspondence had reference solely to matters upon which the President desired to be informed for use in that portion of his forthcoming message relative to army mat. favorably. The Grand Lodge of Free Ma ters.

The Cabinet session to day was very briefand Cubs was not mentioned.

There is no doubt that great activity going on in the navy, and a great many vessels are being put in readiness for sea-service, but the Government will not admit that there is anything in this to cause apprehension, but, on the contrary, asserts that the vessels now being put into commission treatment of the wounded in time of war. are for the purpose of being ready in case They will be exhibited together. One of any emergency should arise in future, and with no present hostile intent. Timon.

Moody and Sankey's Final Meetings in Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, November 19.- Moody and Sankey are holding their final meetings in Brooklyn to-night. The rink is crowded to going on in the Simpson church, in charge of Mr. Needham, the evangelist. Vast numbers are in the extraction results. Vast numbers are in the extraction of bers are in the streets unable to gain admittance to either building.

This morning at 8 o'clock, when Mr. Moody led in the prayer-meeting, three thousand five hundred persons were present. This has been the average attendance during the last three weeks. After this serdirection of Mrs. Needbam.

Mr. Moody began an inquiry-meeting in moon and continued it until 4 o'clock. He then went to the Tabernacle to give his usual-Bible readings. The multitude gathered was so great that the gates of the building had to be locked half an hour before Mr. Moody came. An overflowing meeting was held in the adjoining church by Mr. Needham. Thousands left who were unable to get into either building. The chief power of the Brooklyn revival has been felt among the young men. Hundreds have been hopefully converted. The young men's meetings will be continued every evening under the leadership of Mr. Hall, of Washington, D. C. In return for the blessings of God for this feature of the work Mr. | magnificently received by the new Guikwar. Moody proposed yesterday a thanks-offering. to be contributed to sustain the Brookien Young Men's Christian Association. About ten theusand dollars have been paid in or South Atlantic and East Gulf States, falling pledged already. The funds necessary to and stationary barometer, north to west pay for all the public services, printing, &c., winds, slightly warmer and partly cloudy have all been raised.

It will now be left to the pastors of the different churches to look after these converts and also to carry forward the revival work so auspiciously

Mr. Moody will not close his inquirymeeting until midnight. To-morrow morning he and Mr. Sankey leave for Philadelphia, where they commence their labors Sunday morning. They have won their way into the hearts of all classes in Brooklyn.
